

ZULIMA ROSSEY

Zulima has over 33 years in customer relations, corporate sales with public and non-profit organizations and 15 years' experience in residential construction.

A native of Miami, Florida, Zulima from Cuban heritage born in Manhattan, New York, holds a Community Association Management License for the past two years. Zulima has over 12 years' experience in fire restoration. She was owner operator of her own fire restoration company, Fire Recovery, working in preservation of residential, commercial properties, management companies, realtors & homeowners in projects such as kitchen/bathroom remodeling, deck/porches, roof/tarping, cleanups and removal. She is also a non-profit advocate who committed herself to assisting families and individuals in Milwaukee, Wisconsin communities after witnessing the effects of fire loss to assisting the lives of individuals after such tragedies. She spent from 2009 until 2016 as a Founder/Executive Director of Another Hand Foundation Inc. and the organization assisted more than 6,500 families and individual in crisis. A non-profit 501 c (3) organization whose mission was to "assist families and individuals during crisis and empowering them to rebuild their lives. Since then she moved back to Florida and continues to work in property management. Zulima is also working with other non-profits in her community as a Columbiettes, alongside the Knights of Columbus and does great service at her church.

Zulima is a mother of two and grandmother. Her daughter Natalie is an owner of a massage therapy company in West Palm Beach and son Matthew is on his last year of High School, working towards becoming a Chef. Zulima loves Marco beaches, is a dog lover and a mother to a lab named Maverick.